

What does society need from the family physicians of the future?

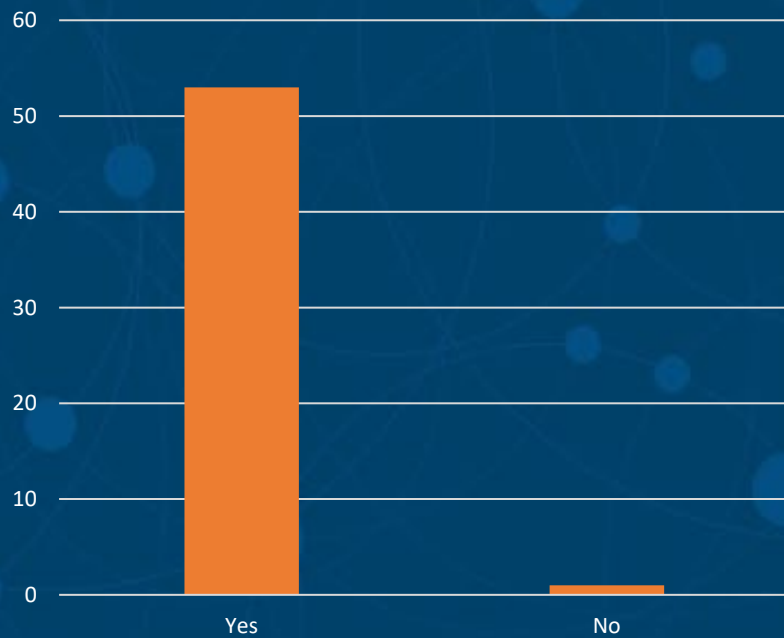

What clinical and health care problems should all family medicine residents of the future be trained to address?

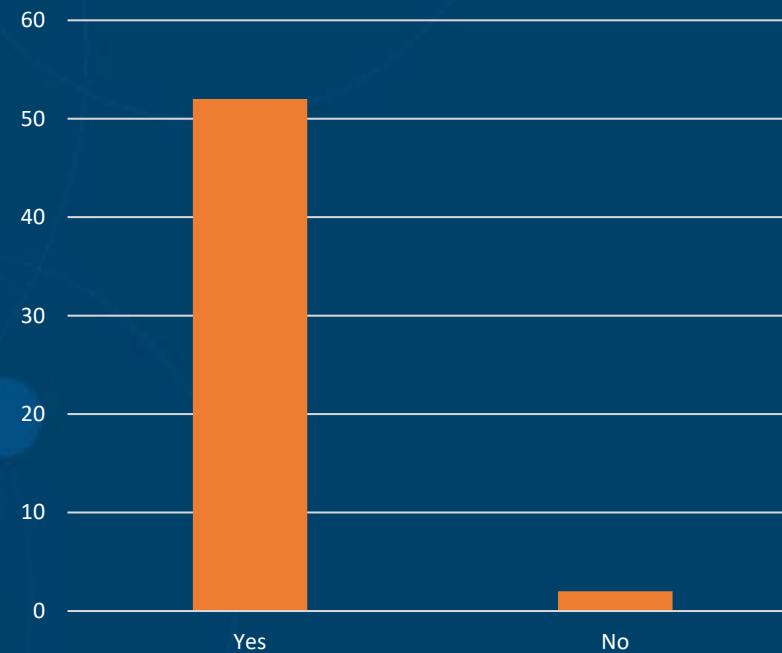

December 6-7th, 2020

What is the role of 4Cs and community?

Should the 4Cs, adapted for the 2020s, be the foundation of family medicine education?

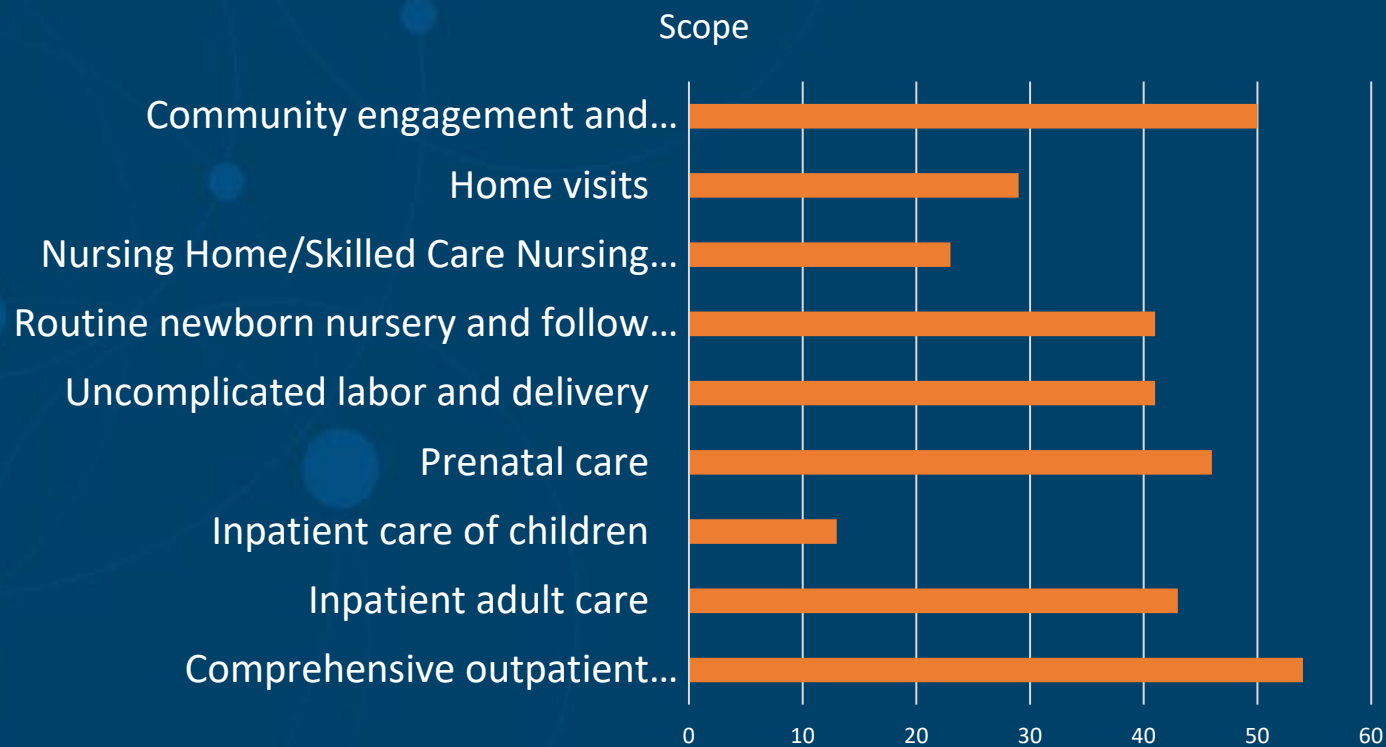

Should Community be a core part of family medicine residency education?

December 6-7th, 2020

What should we teach—in terms of scope and curriculum?

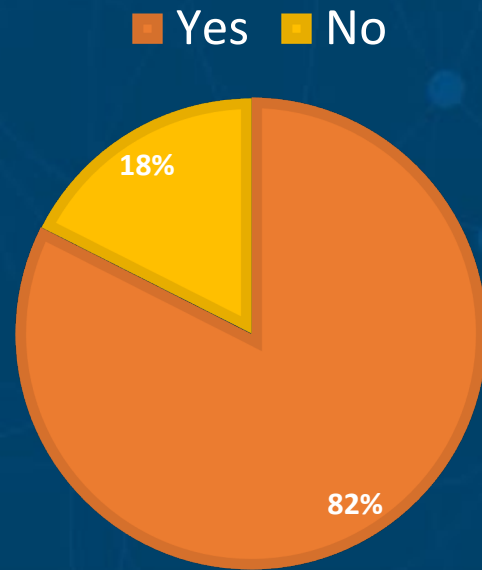

What Scope of Practice should all family medicine residencies train for?

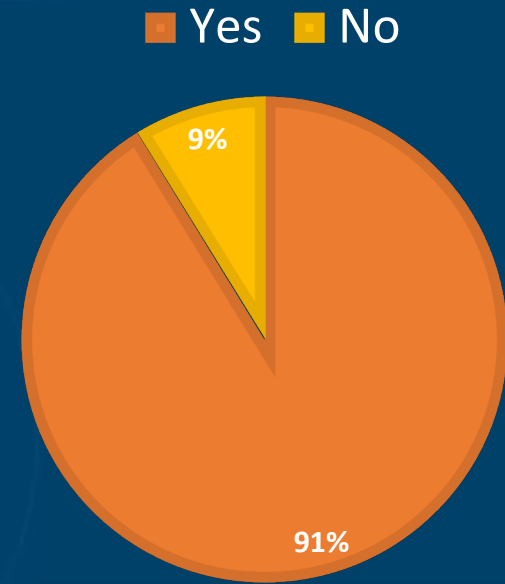

December 6-7th, 2020

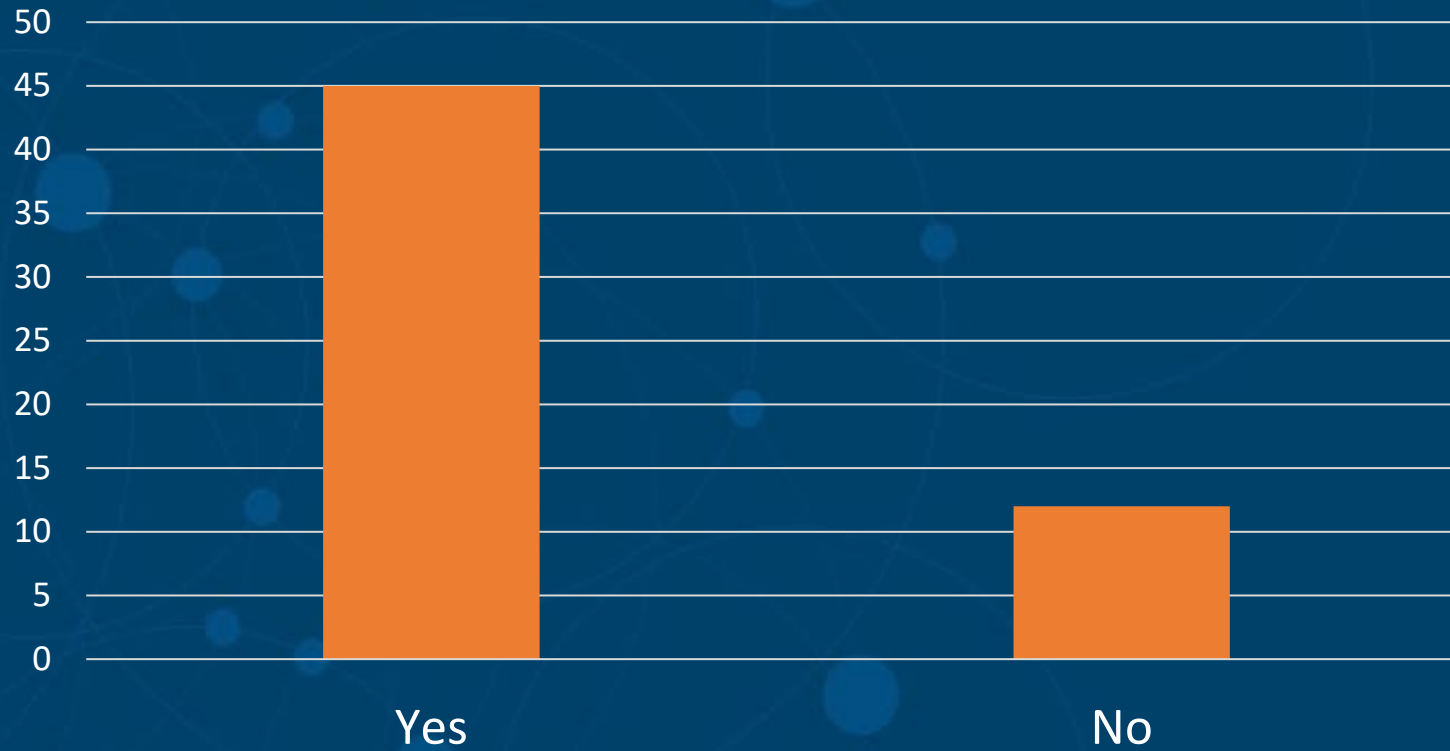

And in the practice?

Should well-defined panels of patients and clinical performance reports (access, quality, referral rates, continuity, and cost-effectiveness) for residents be included in program requirements?

Organization of the FMC: Should patient engagement be built into residency requirements? (advisory panels, QI, shared decision making)

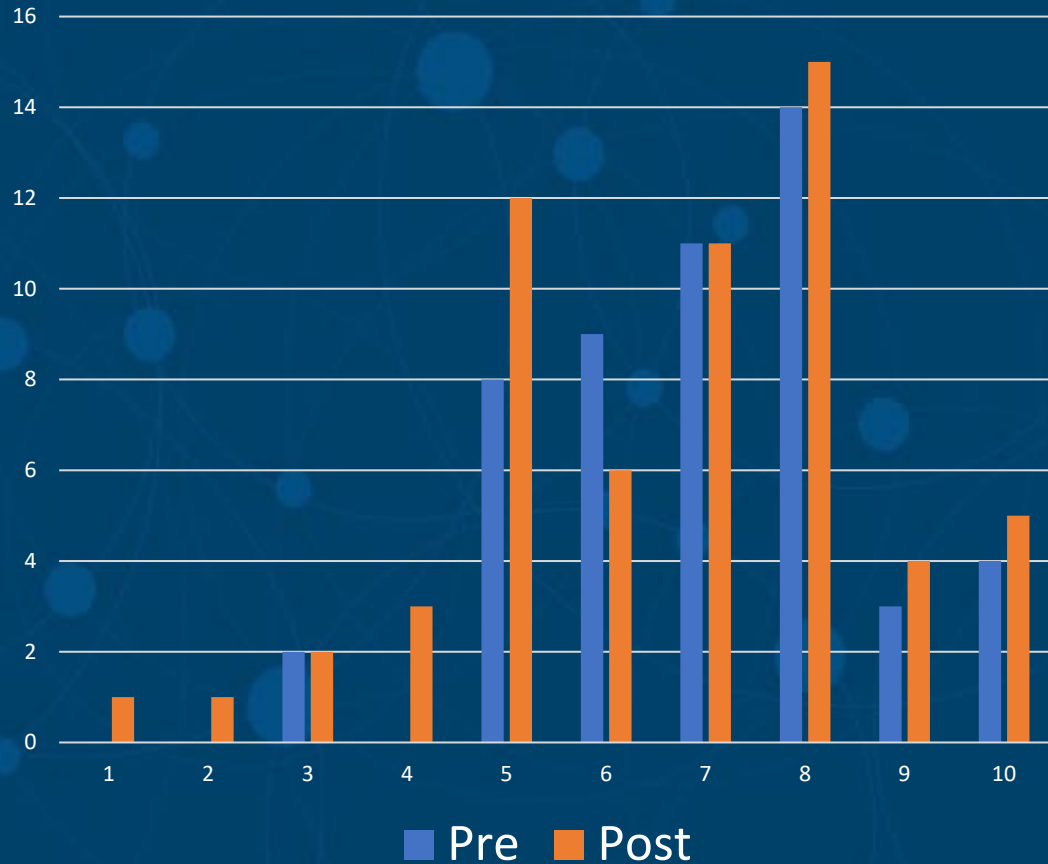

Should residency requirements address size, staffing and control by residency faculty?

December 6-7th, 2020

 STARFIELD SUMMIT

How should we teach? Competency assessments?

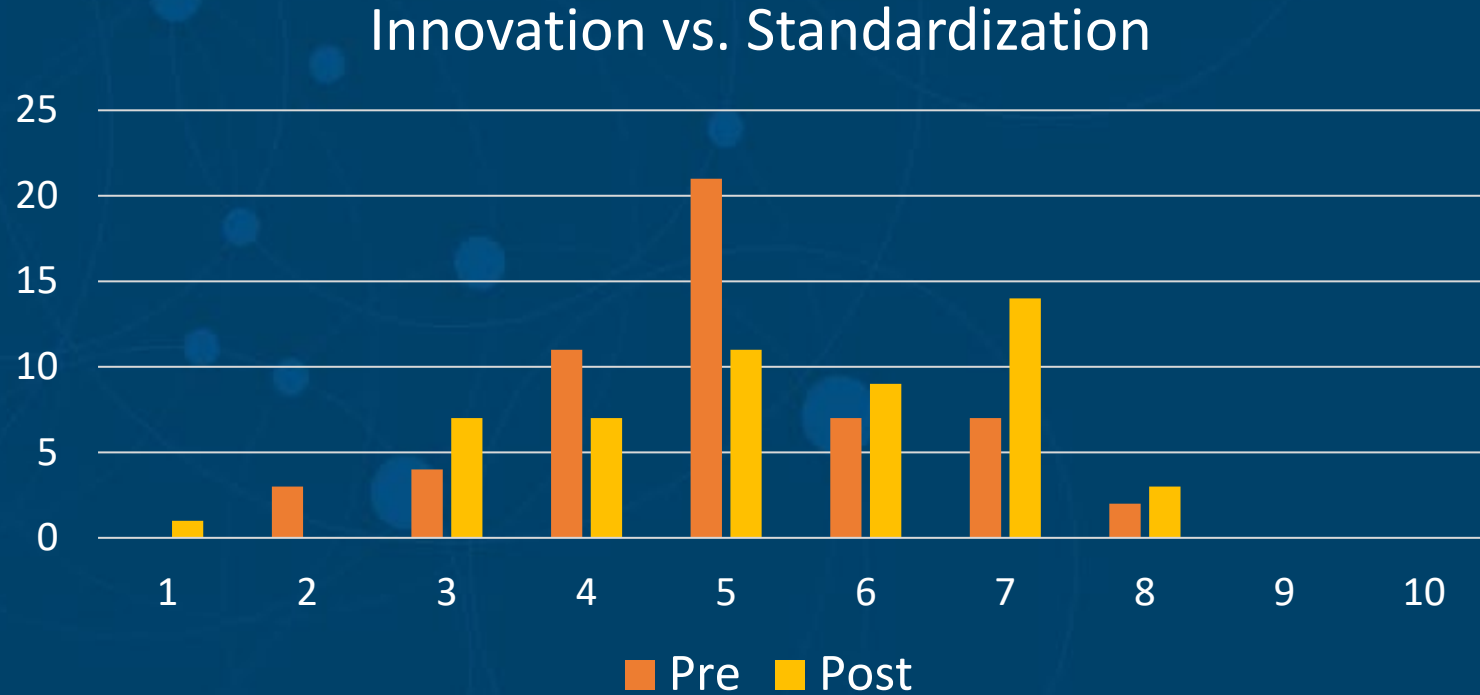

How aggressively should Family Medicine implement robust competency-based family medicine residency education?

What should the duration of core family medicine residency training be?

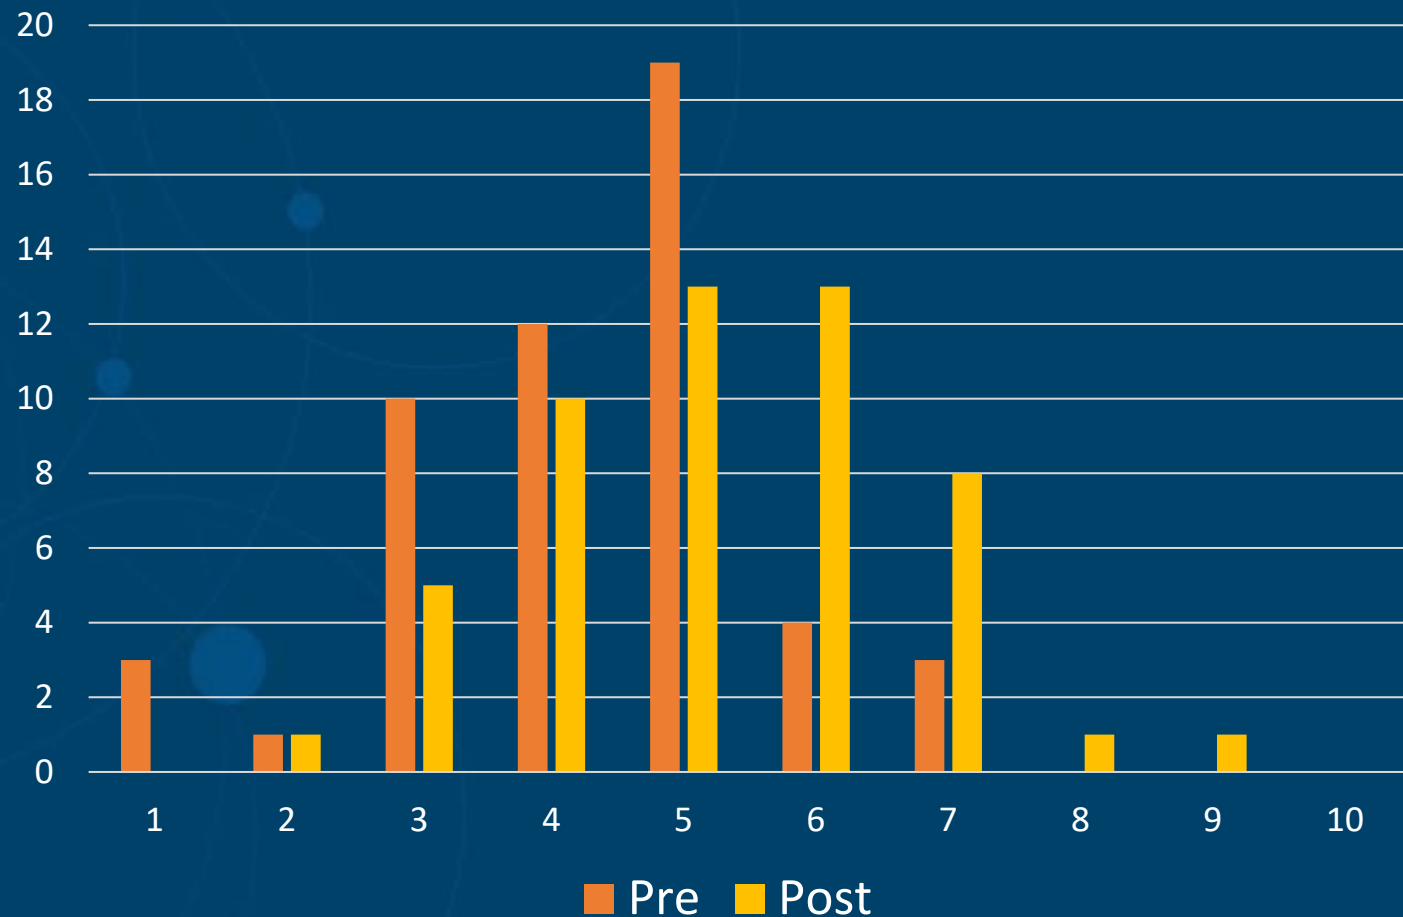

December 6-7th, 2020

What is the right balance of Innovation vs. Standardization as we build the residency system of the future? (Scale 1-10)

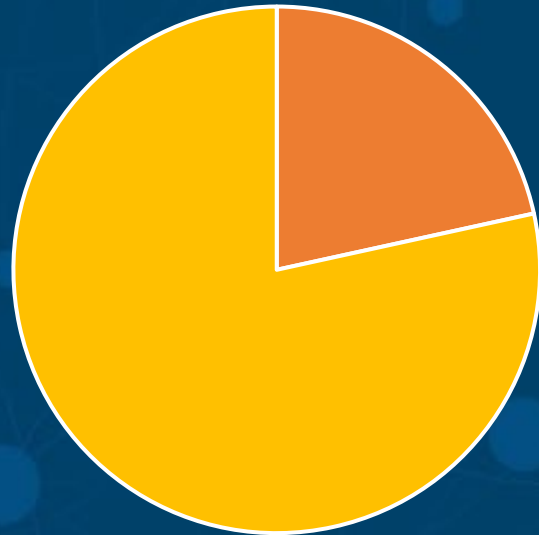

What is your estimate of the overall effectiveness of residencies' formal ongoing efforts to improve education and clinical care?

December 6-7th, 2020

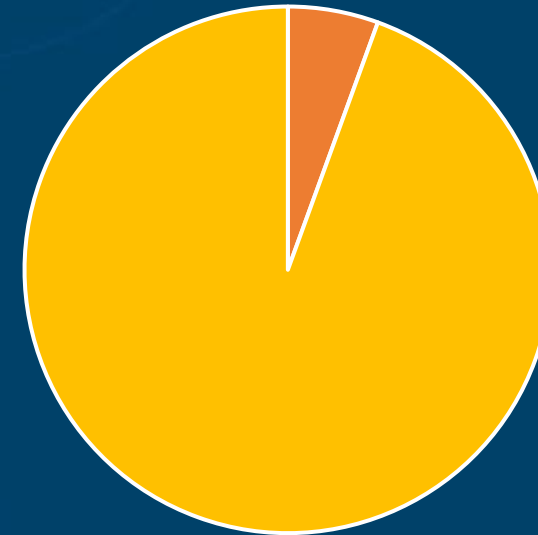

If there is no change, will family medicine residencies as currently organized meet the needs of society over the next 25 years?

PRE

Yes No

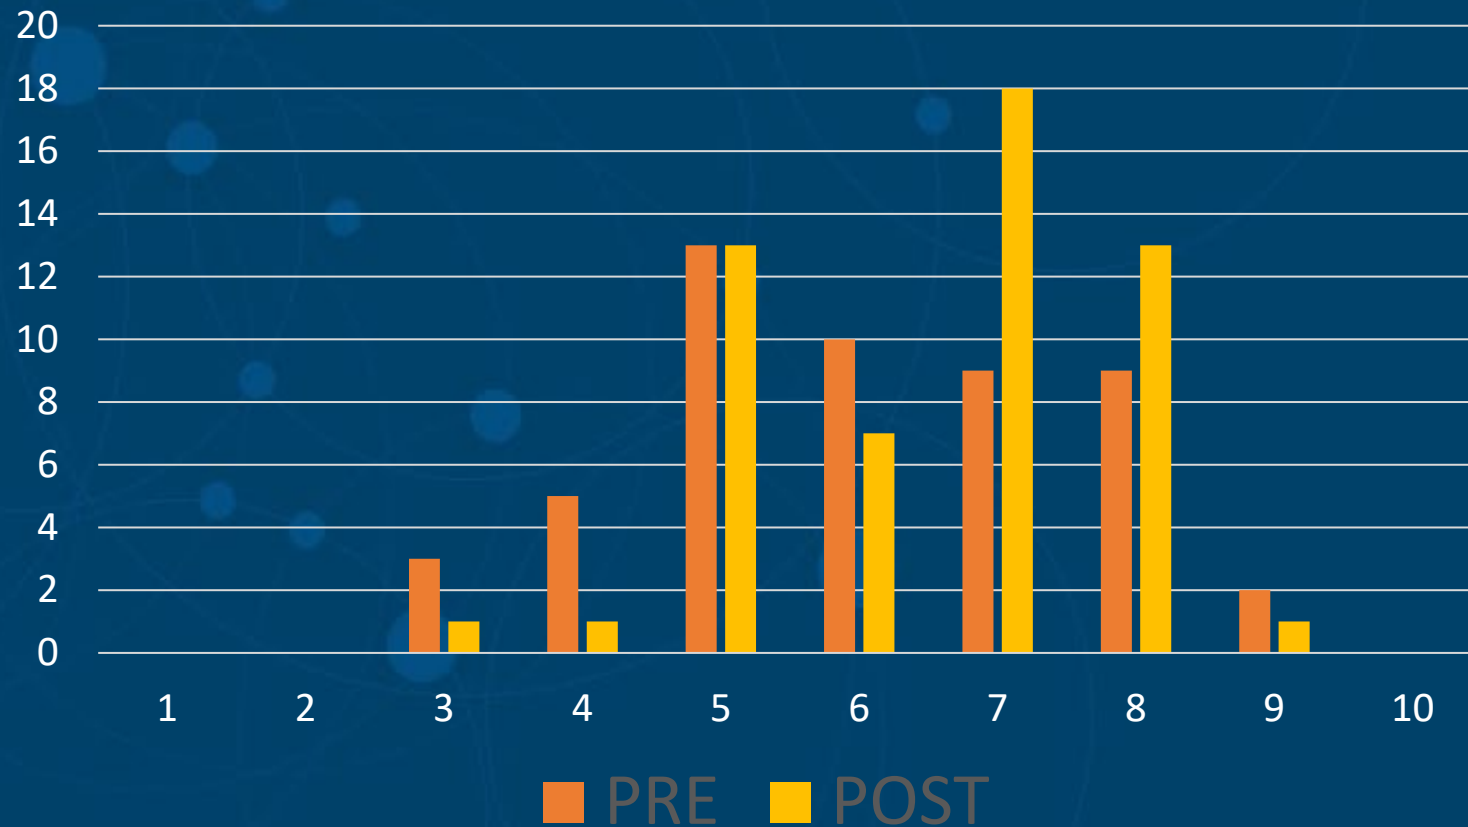

POST

Yes No

December 6-7th, 2020

How much change should there be?

December 6-7th, 2020